

Kenneth "Ken" J. Krieg

Founder

Samford Global Strategies
USD/AT&L (Former)

Mr. Krieg joined Aurora's Board of Directors in 2009.

Mr. Krieg runs Samford Global Strategies (a consulting practice focused on helping clients lead and manage through periods of strategic change). Previously, he served as the Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology and Logistics from June 2005 to July 2007. Prior to his appointment to USD (AT&L), Mr. Krieg served at the Department of Defense as Special Assistant to the Secretary and Director for Program Analysis & Evaluation, as well as the Executive Secretary of the Senior Executive Council (SEC).

Prior to joining the Department of Defense, Mr. Krieg worked for International Paper (IP) for 11 years, most recently as Vice President and General Manager of the Office and Consumer Papers Division.

Before working with IP, Mr. Krieg worked in a number of defense and foreign policy assignments in Washington, DC, including positions at the White House, on the National Security Council Staff, and in the Office of the Secretary of Defense.

He serves on several CEO advisory boards and is a member of the Board of Trustees of LMI and the Board of Directors of Twisted Pair Solutions. He is also a distinguished fellow at Center for Naval Analysis (CNA).

Mr. Krieg received his Bachelor of Arts degree in History (1983) from Davidson College and his Masters in Public Policy degree (1985) from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.
